Happy 2023!

We hope your holiday season was warm and inspiring!

We are looking forward to getting together this coming year, virtually and in person, starting with an important investment in ourselves!

Feel free to forward this message to any guests you'd like to invite; just use caution, please, as it includes a Zoom link.

“See” you on January 19th!

Thursday, January 19, 7 to 8:30 p.m.

CMC BPW JANUARY MEMBER MEETING

Get a taste of the new BPW/PA Personal & Professional Development Workshop, and discover your Authentic Self!

District 11 Director Sheryl Nierenberg, the primary author of this new program and the force behind getting it copyright protected, will present the first module, Discovering Your Authentic Self.

Get out your calendars...

For February, we'll be back in person for a regular dinner meeting, on Thursday, February 16, at Maggiano's, as we celebrate Black History Month. Doors open at 6.

For March, we'll do another lunch meeting, on March 16, recognizing Women's History Month and Equal Pay Day. Doors open at noon.

We are also working on a possible field trip in March to see the Justice Bell at the Upper Dublin Library. Are you a newer member who has not heard the Justice Bell story yet? Check it out here.

April, May, and June will be regular monthly dinner meetings on the third Thursday of the month.

But in JUNE, we're also looking forward to having the Business and Professional Women / Pennsylvania Annual Convention in our area! Our own District 11 is the host district, and we'll be providing some support.

Come to class!

Recognizing that safety can be a factor on cold and dark January nights, we're going back to virtual for our meeting on January 19th.

Our District 11 Director, Sheryl Nierenberg, will take us through the first module of the new Personal and Professional Development Workshop, "Discover Your Authentic Self"! You won't want to miss it!

Once we're warmed up, we'll handle our regular business, including some bylaws amendments.
