Check out the updated "About" info on our website!

We want to be sure our newer members know about ALL the work that BPW does! In addition to the brochure, we've added links to the planning calendar and the list of contests and awards for which we compete each year, as well as some instructions on how to learn more at the BPW/PA website.

If you are interested in getting involved in a particular area, let us know! We have openings on committees that support membership, public relations, professional development, the BPW legislative platform, and more!
